

DIVISION OF PUBLIC RELATIONS

The University of Oklahoma
Norman, Oklahoma

October 2, 1936

Miss Virginia Storm
Norman, Oklahoma

Dear Virginia:

This letter will present you with written information regarding the business transacted in Phantom Mask meeting Thursday night, Oct. 1st.

Those present were Bruce Wiley, Janie Lou Johnson, Merwin Elwell, and Jim Peters. Peters was elected president for the coming year. Members of the local chapter now in Norman and vicinity, as near as can be determined, consist of the above named and the following: Mrs. Wiley, Irene Shaul, Miss Yvonne Dymond, Mr. Heck, Ernie Hill, and yourself.

Pledges on the campus who are now ready for final initiation include Annie Youngblood and Vivia Locke. Others who are considered eligible and worthy are John Dunn, Claude Traverse, Harland Mendenhall, and Martin Fuller.

It is quite obvious that the club is in need of members. Plays are scheduled every two weeks, beginning Wed. nite, Oct. 14th, at 8:15.

Auditions for talent will be conducted Sat. Morning, Oct. 3rd, at 10 o'clock.

A MEETING WILL BE HELD WEDNESDAY NIGHT, OCTOBER 7th, at 7:30 for the purpose of voting on the above named pledges. The meeting will be in the new studios. If you can not be there, be sure to send your vote by proxy. It is my belief that all will be invaluable members.

Yours for service,

Jim Peters, pres.

DIVISION OF PUBLIC RELATIONS

The University of Oklahoma
Norman, Oklahoma

October 2, 1936.

Miss Yvonne Dymond
Norman, Oklahoma

Dear Miss Dymond:

This letter will present you with written information regarding the business transacted in Phantom Mask meeting Thursday night, Oct. 1st.

Those present were Bruce Wiley, Janie Lou Johnson, Merwin Elwell, and Jim Peters. Peters was elected president for the coming year. Members of the local chapter new in Norman and vicinity, as near as can be determined, consist of the above named and the following: Mrs. Wiley, Irene Shaul, Virginia Storm, Homer Heck, Ernie Mill, and yourself.

Pledges on the campus who are now ready for final initiation include Annie Youngblood and Vivian Locke. Others who are considered eligible and worthy are John Dunn, Claude Traverse, Harland Mendenhall, and Martin Fuller.

It is quite obvious that the club is in need of members. Plays are scheduled every two weeks, beginning Wed. nite, Oct. 14th, at 8:15.

Auditions for talent will be conducted Sat. Morning, Oct. 3rd, at 10 o'clock.

A MEETING WILL BE HELD WEDNESDAY NIGHT, OCTOBER 7th, at 7:30 for the purpose of voting on the above named pledges. The meeting will be in the new studios. If you can not be there, be sure to send your vote by proxy. It is my belief that all will be invaluable members.

Yours for service,

Jim Peters, pres.

DIVISION OF PUBLIC RELATIONS

The University of Oklahoma
Norman, Oklahoma

October 2, 1936

Dear Homer:

This letter will present you with written information regarding the business transacted in Phantom Mask meeting Thursday night, Oct. 1st.

Those present were Bruce Wilay, Janis Lou Johnson, Merwin Elwell, and Jim Peters. Jim was elected president for the coming year. Members of the local chapter now in Norman and vicinity consist of the above named and the following: Mrs. Wilay, Miss Yvonne Dymond, Ernest Hill, and yourself.

Pledges on the campus who are not eligible for final initiation include Annie Youngblood and Vivian Locke. Others who are considered eligible and worthy are John Dunn, Claude Traverse, Harland Mendenhall, and Martin Fuller.

It is quite obvious that the club is in need of members. Plays are scheduled every two weeks, beginning Wed. nite, Oct. 14th, at 8:15.

Auditions for talent will be conducted Saturday Morning, Oct. 3rd, at 10 o'clock.

A MEETING WILL BE HELD WEDNESDAY NIGHT, OCTOBER 7th, at 7:30 for the purpose of voting on the above named pledges. The meeting will be in the new studios. If you can not be there be sure to send your vote by proxy. It is my belief that all will be valuable members.

Yours for service,

Jim Peters, pres.

DIVISION OF PUBLIC RELATIONS

The University of Oklahoma
Norman, Oklahoma

October 2, 1936

Miss Irene Shaul
229 West Apache
Norman, Oklahoma

Dear Miss Shaul:

This letter will present you with written information regarding the business transacted in Phantom Mask meeting Thursday night, October 1st.

Those present were Bruce Wiley, Janie Lou Johnson, Merwin Elwell, and Jim Peters. Mr. Peters was elected president for the coming year. Members of the local chapter now in Norman and vicinity consist of the above named and the following: Mrs. Wiley, Mr. Homer Heck, Miss Yvonne Dymond, and Ernest Hill.

Pledges on the campus who are now eligible for final initiation include Annie Youngblood and Vivian Locke. Others who are considered eligible and worthy are John Dunn, Claude Traverse, Harland Mendenhall, and Martin Fuller.

It is quite obvious that the club is in need of members. Plays are scheduled regularly every Wednesday night at 8:15, beginning Wednesday, October 14th.

Auditions for talent will be conducted Saturday morning, Oct. 3rd, at 10 o'clock.

A MEETING WILL BE HELD WEDNESDAY NIGHT, October 7th at 7:30 for the purpose of voting on the above named pledges. The meeting will be in the new studios. If you can not be there be sure to send your vote by proxy. It is my belief that each undesirable in his own capacity and would make invaluable members.

I should like to see you at your convenience concerning the treasury.

Yours for service,

Jim Peters, pres.